The match kicks-off at 7.30pm. There are slight changes from the line-up that drew a strong crowd to Cairns, with two new faces looking to impress: Gui Finkler and Kye Rowles have both joined the squad after playing in the inaugural Hyundai A-League NPL Finals. Incoming striker Gui Finkler had a spellbinding debut in the Westfield FFA Cup earlier this year and impressed during the Mariners' pre-season hit-out in Queensland. He has also previously played in Germany for SV Wehen Wiesbaden and the English club Reading. A newcomer from Europe, 23-year old Kye Rowles, has played in Sweden, Denmark, the MLS and in the United States. He is currently enjoying the first season of a two-year deal with the Mariners. Goalkeeper Liam Reddy returns to the squad after a number of injuries disrupted his pre-season. He will add experience to a young backline and is a key figure for Head Coach Graham Arnold. He is supported by young gun Joshua Rose and some very promising attacking talent. Midfielder Steven Ugarkovic is named in his sixth competitive game for the club. This is the second stint with the Mariners in 2015 after having signed as a rookie in January. The Sydney-born midfielder already has four Hyundai A-League games under his belt and scored one goal for the Club in his first game, netting in an incredible round seven FFA Cup win over Perth Glory. Josh Brownhill is the third overseas-based player included in the squad. The 27-year old is coming off a five-goal season in the National Premier Leagues and has been one of the Mariners' best performers in pre-season. Rounding-out the squad are proven veterans Terry McFlynn and Anthony Caceres, with the latter, having played at the Asian Cup. The game is a great chance for some of the young players e79caf774b

Malignant neoplasms of the nasal cavity and paranasal sinuses: a ten-year retrospective study. The incidence of primary malignant neoplasms of the sinonasal tract (SMN) in Northern Sweden was studied over a ten-year period. In addition to the histological subtypes of tumors, clinical and etiological factors were analyzed. All cases with a histological diagnosis of SMN during this period were reviewed. A series of 534 cases of malignant neoplasms of the sinonasal tract were identified. The review yielded 298 patients (55.7%), with a median age of 60 years (range: 17-94) and with a male:female ratio of 2.1. Of the cases, 90 (30.4%) were malignant melanomas, including four nevi. These melanomas comprised 27.4% of the sinonasal tumors. Olfactory neuroblastomas were the second most common neoplasms (n = 63; 20.8%), mostly in the ethmoid sinuses (n = 49; 79.0%). Mucosal melanomas were the third most common (n = 50; 16.5%), most frequently in the maxillary sinuses. Squamous cell carcinomas of the nasal cavity (n = 38; 12.5%) and adenocarcinomas (n = 12; 4.0%) were in the top three as well. A greater proportion of malignant neoplasms in the maxillary sinuses was found in this study than in the United Kingdom, where the majority of studies have been conducted. The fact that the melanoma was the most common tumor in this study suggests that a more thorough diagnosis and treatment of pre-existing nevi might be of importance.
