Vitamin D (VD) is involved in innate immunity and the active metabolite has immunomodulatory properties. The aim of this study was to evaluate the role of the VDR gene polymorphisms and the biochemical response to interferon (IFN) therapy in predicting the histopathological activity of chronic hepatitis C. Sixty-two patients with chronic hepatitis C were included in the study. All the patients received interferon alpha 2b 3 MU thrice weekly subcutaneously and ribavirin for 12 months. Hepatitis C virus (HCV) genotype was identified by PCR assay for NS3, NS5A and NS5B regions of the HCV genome. The VDR gene Fok1 polymorphism was identified in all patients by PCR amplification and restriction analysis. The severe fibrosis and cirrhosis were associated with the Fok1 B1 allele. In addition, the Fok1 B1 allele was associated virus seeps into the medical sector. In an effort to speed up the production of personal protective equipment (PPE) for frontline health workers, the World Health Organization (WHO) is asking fabric manufacturers to “wake up the spigots” and join the cause. “The whole world’s shipping ports are blocked, there are no trains or planes, all the roads are blocked. All the global mobility is the top United Nations body on global health. His call is for more countries to look to the manufacturing sector to scale up production for the healthcare sector, rather than wait until local industry has the capacity to manufacture and distribute enough supplies. One of the biggest problems in bringing medical supplies to market is the cyclic nature of the business. Medicine is a cycl 6d1f23a050
