-> the dynamic library rld.dll failed to initialize. hi,let us work together to resolve this issue.please answer these questions so that we can diagnose the issue correctly:1. have you installed any anti-virus software on the computer2. how did you install the game onto the computerheres what you can try:temporarily disable any anti-virus installed on the computer and check if the issue is resolved.important note: antivirus software can help protect your computer against viruses and other security threats. in most cases, you shouldn't disable your antivirus software. if you have to temporarily disableit to install other software, you should re-enable it as soon as you're done. if you're connected to the internet or a network while your antivirus software is disabled, your computer is vulnerable to attacks.please get back to us with the results. original title: windows 8
