You will also need to prepare your own clothes for the ceremony which starts at 18.30. The team will normally be in the gifti area at about 18.30. Time-scale We hope to be finished with the main (sitting) ceremony by 20.30, and with the final formalities be back in our accommodation for a quieter night. Accommodation Meeting in the communal area in the gifti - it will normally be here at 19.00. There will be opportunities to collect gifts at the gifti so it is important to remember which area is your gifti! You should also know the area for when you arrive. All the organisers will be in the gifti area and we would hope to be in a quieter area before the fireworks at 20.45. What to wear This is usually a very relaxed and informal event so you should come clothed from the waist up. Our advice is to try and bring a loose top and loose cotton clothing. We ask that you wear a small amount of jewellery with your right hand - when you are preparing to give your gifti to the Viramgam (responsible for handling the offering of gifts). On the night we ask that all attendees wear '6A' badges, 79a2804d6b
