In this book, the author presents history of Indonesia to readers in chronological order. This book was published by the University of Indonesia. Kashmiri Historical Materials Another important aspect is the research material on Pakistan and Jammu and Kashmir. Published by the Library which is a branch of the University of Kashmir, the book is a non-fiction work by the distinguished Kashmiri scholar Dr. Tarikh-e- Tashkeel Kashmir (Hindi: Tarikh-e-Tashkeel Kashmir, Urdu: Tarikh-e-Tashkeel Kashmir) is a Persian phrase used in Kashmiri, one of the major languages of the Kashmir Valley of Pakistan and of the Kashmir region of India and the Kashmir region of Pakistan, referring to a compilation of historical records reflecting that area of the world. Located in the northern part of Kashmir Valley, it is one of the oldest libraries in the region, and is a branch of the University of Kashmir, the oldest and largest public institution of higher education in the Kashmir Valley, and is located in the Sangam locality of Anantnag city. The library is located in a three-story building built in the late s, with a reading room on each level, and can house more than 10, individuals for reference. In November 2016, Pakistani politician and historian Dr. Abdul Rauf Asim awarded his book 'Tarikh-e- Tashkeel Kashmir' as his best work in literary works. Asim had retired from his assistant professor position from the University of Kashmir to work on his book. After retirement he remained a free member of the University. The Government of Jammu and Kashmir will consider his retired status and award him the honorary degree. Tarikh-e- Tashkeel Kashmir is a book which is very important in Jammu and Kashmir. There are no earlier editions and hence the book is incomplete. Abdur Rauf Asim, assistant professor at the Kashmir University has written it. His magn
