Methuselah's Curse: Mosaics, Monuments and the Curse of King David On the banks of the Jordan lies the oasis city of Jericho, one of the world's oldest cities. It has been so for thousands of years: a city of religious observance and ritual dating back to the time of Abraham and his family. The site has been used for millennia for ceremonial and religious purposes, and no doubt about it the city was inhabited since the days of Moses. The site was especially important during the time of King David, King of Israel. Stories about David, King of Israel are full of tales of his greatness. David was supposedly a warrior, a lover of God, a man of great charisma and wisdom and a devout and holy king. Yet, it is also claimed that he was
